

Every vertical route in the building, and which levels it serves.

Four stairwells run the full height of the building, one per corner, and double as the fire exits. Elevators sit west and east.